Third party Websites and services

10. OACP may, from time to time, employ the services of other parties for dealing with certain processes necessary for the operation of the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website. The providers of such services have access to certain personal Data provided by Users of this Website.
11. Any Data used by such parties is used only to the extent required by them to perform the services that we request. Any use for other purposes is strictly prohibited. Furthermore, any Data that is processed by OACP and Proud to Care Oxfordshire partners / third parties will be processed within the terms of this privacy policy and in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

Links to other Websites

12. The Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website may, from time to time, provide links to other Websites. We have no control over such Websites and are not responsible for the content of these Websites. This privacy policy does not extend to your use of such Websites. You are advised to read the privacy policy or statement of other Websites prior to using them.

Controlling use of your Data

13. Wherever you are required to submit Data, you will be given options to restrict our use of that Data. This may include use of Data for direct marketing purposes.

Functionality of the Website

14. To use all features and functions available on the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website, you may be required to submit certain Data.
15. You may restrict your internet browser's use of Cookies. For more information see the clause below (Cookies).

Accessing your own Data

16. You have the right to ask for a copy of any of your personal Data held by OACP (where such Data is held).

Security

17. Data security is of great importance to OACP and to protect your Data we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure Data collected via the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website.
18. If password access is required for certain parts of the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential.
19. We endeavour to do our best to protect your personal Data. However, transmission of information over the internet is not entirely secure and is done at your own risk. We cannot ensure the security of your Data transmitted to the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website.

Cookies

20. The Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website may place and access certain Cookies on your computer. The Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website uses Cookies to improve your experience of using the Website to improve our range of products and services. OACP has carefully chosen these Cookies and has taken steps to ensure that your privacy is protected and respected at all times.
21. All Cookies used by Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website are used in accordance with current UK and EU Cookie Law.
22. Before the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website places Cookies on your computer, you will be presented with a message bar requesting your consent to set those Cookies. By giving your consent to the placing of Cookies, you are enabling the Proud to Care Oxfordshire / Oxfordshire Association of Care Providers CIC to provide a better experience and service to you. You may, if you wish, deny consent to the placing of Cookies; however certain features of the Website may not function fully or as intended.
23. The Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website may place the following Cookies:
  - a. Strictly necessary cookies: These are cookies that are required for the operation of our Website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of the Website.
  - b. Analytical/performance cookies: They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our Website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

- c. Functionality cookies: These are used to recognise you when you return to the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).
  - d. Targeting cookies: These cookies record your visit to the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website., the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our Website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with our partners and third parties for this purpose.
24. You can choose to enable or disable Cookies in your Internet browser. By default, most Internet browsers accept Cookies, but this can be changed. For further details, please consult the help menu in your internet browser.
25. You can choose to delete Cookies at any time; however, you may lose any information that enables you to access the Proud to Care Oxfordshire Website more quickly and efficiently including, but not limited to, personalisation settings.
26. It is recommended that you ensure that your Internet browser is up-to-date and that you consult the help and guidance provided by the developer of your Internet browser if you are unsure about adjusting your privacy settings.

Transfers outside the European Economic Area

27. Data which we collect from you may be stored and processed in and transferred to countries outside of the European Economic Area (EEA). For example, this could occur if our servers are located in a country outside the EEA or one of our service providers is situated in a country outside the EEA. We also share information with our group companies, some of which are located outside the EEA. These countries may not have data protection laws equivalent to those in force in the EEA.
28. If we transfer Data outside the EEA in this way, we will take steps with the aim of ensuring that your privacy rights continue to be protected as outlined in this privacy policy. You expressly agree to such transfers of Data.

General

29. You may not transfer any of your rights under this privacy policy to any other person. We may transfer our rights under this privacy policy where we reasonably believe your rights will not be affected.
30. If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this privacy policy (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision will, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this privacy policy will not be affected.
31. Unless otherwise agreed, no delay, act or omission by a party in exercising any right or remedy will be deemed a waiver of that, or any other, right or remedy.
32. This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted according to the law of England and Wales. All disputes arising under the Agreement will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English and Welsh courts.

Changes to this privacy policy

33. OACP reserves the right to change this privacy policy as we may deem necessary from time to time or as may be required by law. Any changes will be immediately posted on the Website and you are deemed to have accepted the terms of the privacy policy on your first use of the Website following the alterations.

34. You may contact Proud to Care Oxfordshire by email: hello@proudtocareoxfordshire.org.uk or OACP by email at info@oacp.org.uk.
